

Kelly Carr is the Regional Director of Operations for Exclusive Resorts, the world's leading luxury destination club with a portfolio of 400+ luxury residences and experiences spanning 120+ destinations. Kelly oversees operations/assets for the Caribbean region consisting of 50+ residences on 7 islands (Abaco, Anguilla, Grand Cayman, Nevis, St. Barth's, Turks & Caicos, Virgin Gorda). Kelly joined Exclusive Resorts in 2007 and has travelled extensively throughout the portfolio to domestic and international destinations to train and develop team members and consult on how to improve underperforming areas. Kelly lived in Grand Cayman for 7 years and has a great understanding and appreciation for the intricacies of island life.

Prior to joining Exclusive Resorts, Kelly served on the Executive Committee as Director of Guest Services at La Playa Beach and Golf Resort and Guest Services Manager of the Bellasera Condominium Hotel in Naples, Florida. As a licensed Community Association Manager at Bellasera, Kelly also managed the condominium association, maintained owner reservations, calculated unit usage, performed monthly reconciliations, and conducted board meetings.

Kelly graduated from Florida Atlantic University with a BA in Communications and has developed consummate guest and owner relationship skills derived from extensive luxury hospitality experience.
