

Kelly Carr is the Regional General Manager for Exclusive Resorts Caribbean destinations overseeing operations for Grand Cayman, Abaco, Anguilla, Little Dix Bay, and Turks & Caicos. She joined Exclusive Resorts in 2007 as Residence Manager in Bonita Beach, Florida. Having lead a successful team and operations of two Luxury communities consisting of 15 homes within the clubs resort operations for three years, Kelly happily accepted the opportunity to relocate to an international location. A lover of warm climate and the island culture, Kelly has been excited to call Grand Cayman her home as General Manager for the community of 16 villas located on Exclusive Island, part of The Ritz Carlton Strata since October 2010. Kelly has travelled extensively to other Exclusive Resorts domestic and international destinations throughout her tenure to train and develop team members and consult on how to improve underperforming areas. Prior to joining Exclusive Resorts, Kelly served on the Executive Committee as Director of Guest Services at La Playa Beach and Golf Resort and Guest Services Manager of the Bellasera Condominium Hotel in Naples, Florida. As a licensed Community Association Manager at Bellasera, Kelly also managed the condominium association, maintained owner reservations, calculated unit usage, performed monthly reconciliations, and conducted board meetings. Kelly graduated from Florida Atlantic University with a BA in Communications and has developed consummate guest and owner relationship skills derived from extensive luxury hospitality experience.
