

David Hoffman is a South Carolina native, growing up and attending high school in Mount Pleasant, SC. After graduating magna cum laude from The Citadel in 1991, Dave began a career in public service before pursuing his law degree from the University of Florida in Gainesville, where he graduated with honors in 1997.

He founded Hoffman Law Firm in April 2007 in a one-room office on Carriage Lane in the West Ashley area of Charleston. Since then, he has grown the business into a recognizable and well-known law firm in the Charleston area. His practice areas are in Workers' Compensation, Longshore, motor vehicle accidents and personal injuries. He speaks both Spanish and Italian.

An active member of the Lowcountry, Dave helps his community by supporting Abby's Friends, The American Heart Association, Camp Happy Days, Darkness to Light, Trident Literacy Association, and is a sponsor of the Charleston Scottish Society's Annual Scottish Games, from which proceeds go to benefit the Ronald McDonald House.

He has been an owner at The Palms since 2012 and looks forward to many more years of growth and opportunity as Providenciales continues to thrive. Dave is confident that his professional experience and his involvement on other boards will be valued added to the Palms community. As an increasingly frequent visitor to the resort, Dave will work with the strata board to advance condo owner interests.
